

I listen to XM radio because the service provided by our local broadcasters was so poor it was non-existent as far as I'm concerned. Competition has been the consumers best protection for price and value. Don't take this away from the American consumer by arbitrarily limiting our choice by decree.